

Sarah . . . Or Jezebel

By John Horner

INTRODUCTION

There comes a time when, in your pursuit of the Lord, you have to stop and look around, and ask the hard questions.

Jesus did.

His first appearance, after the manger scene, was in stepping away momentarily from his parents, to enter the temple and ASK THE HARD QUESTIONS, Luke 2:46, of the professing religious leaders of his day. This was the actual beginning of the Jesus revolution, and hence the revolution of true Christianity. It also begins our revolution into being conformed into the image of Jesus Christ, both for the individual and the church.

Have we found the truth/Truth that keeps the heart free from this world? Have we been willing to reject "popular theology", embracing the "narrow gate" truth that keeps the soul with wings? Have we come to the literal point of "loving not our lives even unto death" for the truth/Truth that gives us power over the enemy? (Rev. 12:11).

Since we are right in the midst of the coming and greatest deceptions over the "church", Christ's words to his closest followers should resonate inside every chamber of our soul. After his most loyal followers asking him three very important and destiny-revealing questions in the beginning of Matt. 24, he releases a solemn warning to them, "Watch out that no one deceives you." If they couldn't get deceived, why would Jesus have warned them? If he would warn his most loyal followers then to "watch out" for the coming deceptions, he would warn his most loyal followers today to "watch out" for the coming deceptions. How? We must know the timeless truth/Truth of his Word like we never have before. We must "study to show ourselves approved" like we never have before.

If we do not have power over the works of the devil (1 John 3:8) as Christ and the apostles did, then something is wrong--first in our beliefs. We must then heed the call to, "Watch your life and doctrine CLOSELY. Persevere in them, because if you do, you will save both yourself and your hearers." (I Tim. 4:16). Did the Spirit of God put a condition on being saved here? Hmmm. . .

God so loved the women He made to be godly, that He, when He inspired His New Testament, pulled two women out of their gnomic, yet historical past, and set them up as teaching destinies inside His New Testament Church. These women are Sarah, and Jezebel. Clearly they both, by the glorious wisdom of our Father, can and will shed light to every generation of women who hunger to be what God put deep inside of them. One of these women God pulled out of history to show what He doesn't like/want a woman to be and will be condemned--Jezebel. The other He pulled out to show what He does want and will one day be honored in heaven--Sarah.

"Father, let the timeless wisdom of your word pierce every woman's heart (and man's) who read this to not only return to watching their life and doctrine closely, but also to "purify ourselves from EVERYTHING that contaminates BODY and SPIRIT, perfecting holiness out of reverence for God." (II Cor. 7:1).

The Beautiful Princess

And behold, there was more than once, living in the heart of Villagemedia, a beautiful princess, very lovely in form. There was also living in Villagemedia, two very prominent princes--the Prince of Truth, and the Prince of Lies. These two princes, though not openly manifesting, both made their presence known in Villagemedia.

And it came to pass, that the two princes were not only at war with one another, but both were competing for the control of Villagemedia. The beautiful princess, however, was unaware of the depth or real nature of the war, for the Prince of Lies had convinced most princesses everywhere that there really was no war--everything was always fine and fun in LordMaker's Kingdom.

As the beautiful princess grew, matured, and became increasingly more beautiful, the Prince of Lies and the Prince of Truth both began to desire her. The Prince of Lies, however, only desired her to help advance his kingdom of lies and destruction; the Prince of Truth desired her to be his bride, and help him stir the eternal revelations and revolutions of LordMaker in His Kingdom.

In subsequent days and weeks, the Prince of Lies made a very concerted attack on the beautiful princess to make her feel lonely, unloved, and undesirable. The Prince of Truth had shown her, though, that she was eternally desirable because of his valiant battle and victory on a lonely hill, on a cross, outside a city, completely defeating all of the evil Prince's war strategies--depression, rejection, disease, fear, pain, self-condemnation, control, rebellion, and unforgiveness. But this historic battle and defeat did not keep the Prince of Lies from trying to convince the inhabitants of LordMaker's kingdom that his own selfish ways were right. So the evil prince began to whisper lies to the beautiful princess that the only way she would ever get a prince charming was to use her outward beauty to "charm" a man to love, marry, and stay with her. Slowly, the evil prince convinced her; the beautiful princess began to use her body to charm a man. This greatly sorrowed the Prince of Truth, who consulted with LordMaker as to how he could stay within the rules of the War Manual, and win the princess back to his kingdom. The Prince of Truth began to develop a strategy that would forever win her back. . . .

However, Villagemedia was already so under the control of the evil Prince, that the beautiful princess began to fall. . .first in her mind. The princess began to believe the Prince of Lies that LordMaker had faulted when He made her nose, that He didn't give her the right color or contour of hair or eyes, that she was not the "perfect" height, and that her feminine features were not "perfect" either. These lies by the evil Prince then, in turn, made the beautiful princess want to use these features to make a man desire her.

Although buried deep under the lies now, the beautiful princess really desired a man after LordMaker's heart; but, because the princess had chosen to believe the lies, the Prince of Lies now could send her part of his own army--his "man"ions. These were deceptively engineered males that the evil prince made to look like they would and could love, but they really only wanted to use princesses for their own selfish advancement, sometimes even unaware that they were ultimately advancing the Prince of Lies' kingdom. So she began to use her body to "charm" them in, the manions followed by using her body and then throwing her heart out. The beautiful princess was hurt time and again by these manions, and could not understand why none of them could see the part of LordMaker's sacrificial heart that she knew she had buried somewhere inside. The beautiful princess began to despair; with every manion that used her, the Prince of Lies also gained a hook inside the princess through the soul tie left with each manion. This enabled the evil prince to bring depression, anger, and head her for destruction.

But, the Prince of Truth had always been close by, and was preparing his attack on the darkness and his rescue. . . .

The Prince of Truth began to whisper, from deep inside, to the beautiful princess that she could be free--totally free. He dispatched servants and soldiers to speak to her from time to time with loving warnings. . .but getting increasingly more serious.

Then, he sent a white knight; a fearless warrior that carried the heart of the regal Prince and LordMaker for the princess. He spoke of the love of LordMaker to her, but also the gravity of her sin and departure from the Prince of Truth.

He said to her, "You have allowed the enemy Prince into your life--LordMaker is very unhappy."

She knew he spoke truth. . . .

"You have allowed deception, instead of guarding against it; and you have not made the War Manual, LordMaker's very words, worth dying for. . . .Did you not know that charm is deception? But that a woman who fears LordMaker will be praised in this life and the one to come?"

The princess could feel, from deep inside, her betrayal of her true Prince--the Prince of Truth, and his father LordMaker. She could now FEEL both Princes struggling to gain control of her from the inside; the war was becoming serious inside her. . .and carrying eternal consequences.

"What must I do to please LordMaker?", she asked the white knight.

"You must first cover your body in such a way as to even keep in hiding the special contour and design of LordMaker; remember that it is HIS temple, and He is a God who, by His own words, hides himself. Manions are manipulated by the outward of a princess; LordMaker's sons are only blessed by the outward, but moved by the inward of a princess. You must pay every price necessary to get the power of the Prince of Lies out of you, or the consequences could be eternal-- the Prince of Truth taught this. You must also fully embrace that 'Your LordMaker is your husband--the Lord Almighty is his name.' Lastly, pursue only your eternal Prince, and LordMaker, for they desire to fill you with their power, their love, and their soundness of mind."

LordMaker's white knight's appearances to the princess were always somewhat suddenly, which made the princess feel a new urgency. He warned her in parting not to overestimate or underestimate the power of the Prince of Lies. The warning rang out thru her soul until the next generation of princesses were eternally awakened to the revolution that the pure Prince and LordMaker were longing for on the Earth. . .Heaven on Earth.

CHAPTER I

The Spirit of Sarah. . .or the spirit of Jezebel

This is not a book against women; much to the contrary. This is a biblical look at what God desires for women/wives in order that they might have true spiritual fulfillment! "Study to show yourselves approved. . ."

Most "believers" have no clue just how much they have been deluded by the spirit of the age. Most turn on the television when they need a little entertainment or guidance in their lives. How can this please the Lord who told us over and over to not be conformed to this world and, "do not love the world or ANYTHING in the world," (I John 2:15). You know what "christian" Americans have loved? Our so-called "liberty". Is there any prophetic significance with the fact that our country portrays it as a lady?

Here I believe, with a closer look, we will see one of the founding deceptions that has wrecked a lot of lives and marriages in our country. Some of the "fathers" of our country decided to portray liberty as a huge female graven image in New York's harbor. Is this the symbol of true liberty? No.

Jesus Christ said that whom the Son sets free is free indeed. Political liberty is a façade to true liberty. All the "free" nations/men/women in the world, are not free AT ALL unless the Son of God has set the heart and life free from the power of sin and demons. But this symbol has opened Pandora's box of evil deceptions that continue to grow in our country. True liberty started with Jesus Christ's work on the cross, and continues with the moving of the Spirit of God (which is neither male or female) in our lives, II Cor. 3:17. True liberty starts with embracing Truth (the Lord Christ, John 14:6), and continues with embracing Spirit and Truth--not just Spirit!! God said it is where the "Spirit of the LORD (Jesus/TRUTH) is, there is liberty." II Cor. 3:17

Every godly woman who desires to be honored in heaven as Sarah is, (I Pet. 3:4-6) must first reject this country's premise for "liberty"--fighting wars that free us from a government other than a democracy. Am I against a democracy? No, unless it becomes the crippling force for the bondage of sin. We all must cling to Christ's premise for liberty. We are taught that freedom came first in a revolutionary war, then in a civil war, and hence in continuing wars. This is not true. There is only one war that purchased any true liberty; the war Christ fought with Satan all his life to say "no" to sin, "yes" to total submission to His Father's words, "no" to popularity, and "yes" to a life of sacrifice every day.

Liberty is not in a lady with a torch in a harbor!! Liberty is not in a lady that gave birth to a savior!! She (Mary) admitted she needed a savior for her sin!! (Lk. 1:47). LIBERTY IS NOT BEING FREE FROM RULE/OVERSIGHT OF A MAN; LIBERTY IS BEING FREE FROM THE RULE/OVERSIGHT OF SIN!!! God, in his beautiful and infinite wisdom, put Eve, after she had stepped away from Adam for a brief moment and became "the woman who was deceived and became a sinner" (I Tim. 2:14), under the rule/oversight of her husband so that something worse would not happen. Like going now and eating from the tree of life. We don't know what would've happened, but we know God didn't want it to happen, so it couldn't have been good!

The spirit of Jezebel will always try to get a woman to come out from under her God-ordained authority; if she is married, it is her husband (Eph. 5:24), if she is unmarried and in the body of Christ, she is to submit herself to a godly male shepherd who has clearly demonstrated spiritual and practical care for the sheep, (I Cor. 11:9,10 and I Tim. 3:2, we will talk more about all this later).

The spirit of Jezebel will be claiming she is going to "go on" and get closer with God, better without her husband, or godly male shepherd. But remember, Eve truly believed that she was going to "go on" with God and even become more like him!! I truly have wondered what would've changed if Eve had first asked her husband if she could take a bite. . . .

If you really look at the spirit and person of Jezebel found primarily in the O.T. passage of I Kings 21:1-26, and Rev. 2:20-24, you will discover (every godly woman reading this), several things that the love of your Father is strongly opposed to.

First, Jezebel was found rebuking her husband, I Kings 21:7. Many "christian" women today feel this is a part of their "ministry" to their husband. The "ministry" of correcting their husband. But let's look at what God says. I am not saying that a Sarah-type woman cannot ever have a corrective word for her husband; what I am saying is that God himself will come and speak to the man (like Abraham), and tell him directly in his heart TO listen to the corrective word from his wife. Because God himself set it up for the wife to receive this from her husband as the biblical marriage norm; Adam was rebuked for listening to Eve, Gen. 3:16, 17. So God set up the norm of Adam/husband to exercise oversight/care/correction over Eve/wife, vs. 16 and 17 clearly reveal this. But God can and does speak thru Sarah wives to bring a corrective word to their husband at times, but it will not be confirmed thru nagging, but thru God/Christ himself coming and telling the "Abraham" to listen to the corrective word thru the "Sarah", Gen. 21:12.

Second, Jezebel took control of matters. She decided that since Ahab couldn't get the vineyard his way, she would get it her way. This offends the Lord, as you can see that later He pronounced a very heavy judgment on her. It can be a beautiful thing when a husband voluntarily gives certain areas of family life to his wife to care for, but he should still take his role of overseer seriously to make sure, from time to time, that issues are being dealt with in a manner that honors the Truth/truth.

Thirdly, she used her outer appearance to manipulate/subdue men. This is found when you read the account of her just before the judgment of God takes her life, II Kings 9:30. God even confirms how he detests this when He said,

"I also want women to dress modestly, with decency and propriety, not with braided hair or gold or pearls or expensive clothes, but with good deeds, appropriate for WOMEN WHO PROFESS TO WORSHIP GOD." (I Tim. 2:9).

This is so key! I believe that every time a woman dresses in such a way that she causes a man to lust after her, because of the way she's dressed, she will be held accountable one day before God Almighty. Do you, godly woman, want to avoid this judgment? Then go to the extreme of modesty--because I guarantee the Father won't judge you for dressing too modestly! Modesty in a virtuous woman is truly appealing to a truly godly, Christ-seeking man anyway! It saddens and angers the Lord to see many of the women of the "church", dressing to keep up with the women of the world. This is so wrong.

Fourthly, she accuses the one the Lord anoints, II Kings 9:31. There is so much false accusation and slander going around in the "church"; God hates it. It is bad enough when it is one man toward another, but when God has declared that the most beautiful thing a woman can have is a submissive, gentle, and quiet spirit, (I Pet. 3:1-4) then it is even worse when a woman accuses a man.

Fifthly, she teaches sexual immorality, Rev. 2:20. It is important to note that she not only teaches it, but how she teaches it. She "misleads" God's servants. So she is not only at fault for once again trying to lead, but then misleading them. In our country today, this spirit of Jezebel is still the same. But here is how that serpent is misleading God's servants into sexual immorality; she/Jezebel is teaching by her life that to divorce her husband for any other reason than adultery, and remarry, is OK and God forgives. This is how thousands of marriages have been wrecked.

Listen. . . God said it was Eve who was deceived (I Tim. 2:14). Women are primarily governed/easily moved by their emotions. God designed this as a beautiful thing when it is inside a marriage, submitted to her husband, and caring for children. When a woman divorces her husband for any other reason (Compare Mark 10:12, and Matthew 5:32) than adultery, and remarries, she is not only committing adultery, but she is, in essence, teaching, by her lifestyle, that there are other "grounds" for divorce and remarriage than what the Word of God teaches. This is a grave sin in the modern "church." God have mercy. . .

I believe that a diligent study of the Word and Sarah's life toward Abraham will reveal that Sarah was just the opposite of Jezebel, in all the aforementioned ways. Sure, she had her faults; in fact, it is when she tried to control/manipulate Abraham into having a child thru Hagar, that the world's worst nation-against-nation problems started! But, Sarah apparently learned from her wrong, and went on to be a God-ordained hall-of-famer for her gentleness, faith, and calling her husband "master."

Unlike Jezebel, the Spirit of Sarah does not desire to rebuke her husband. If there was ever a time Abe needed one, it was when he let his beautiful bride go into the Pharoah's harem. Most women today would've probably gone out and found a whole paslode of people to "confront" this fear on their Abe's part, and set him straight. BUT SARAH'S GENTLE OBEDIENCE HONORED YAHWEH SO MUCH, HE SHOWED UP AND REBUKED THE PHAROAH, THEN REBUKED ABRAHAM THRU PHAROAH, THEN USED ABRAHAM TO MINISTER HEALING TO ABIMILECH'S FAMILY, THEN CAUSED THE PHAROAH TO GIVE SHEEP, CATTLE, SLAVES, AND EVEN LAND TO ABRAHAM! What caused this windfall of grace and blessing? The gentle and obedient spirit of Sarah that made her husband her lord, under her Lord.

Woouooooooooow.

Unlike Jezebel, the Spirit of Sarah does not take control of the family, or try to use her appearance to persuade/manipulate men. If there was ever a time Sarah could have gotten into fear, it's when Abraham mysteriously takes off early one morning with Isaac and some servants, and enough supplies to be gone for days! Scripture doesn't say whether she knew where and why he was going or didn't. Neither one would be easy. If she did know, she had to dispel the devil of fear that told her that she would have a murdered son and a murderer for a husband. If she didn't know, think of the feeling of fear/rejection she had to fight off thinking her husband and son were leaving her and not telling her where or why they were going.

But, as God said, "Sarah" did what was right and did not "give way to fear." (I Pet. 3:6).

What a testimony of God's Spirit in/on a woman. . . .

CHAPTER II

Sarah. . .the two New Testament types

I truly believe that a godly woman can embrace this spirit of Sarah, and still not fulfill her whole destiny in the Lord.

This revelation comes from looking at the life and ministry of Jesus Christ. There were two women that stayed extremely close to Jesus, both apparently unmarried, and yet true followers of the Lord Jesus--Mary, and Martha.

I see prophetically, that these two types are very much in the "church" today, and can be married, or unmarried. I believe both of these types of "Sarahs" are saved, and on their way to heaven. But for writing sake, we will call them "Sarah-Mary", and "Sarah-Martha."

In Luke 10:38-42, we read a very important passage of Scripture, and a clear distinction between these two Sarah destinies. Sarah-Martha had a home, and when Jesus entered her village, she invited him in. This is all good; yet, she became overly concerned with "preparations" that had to be made. This is still the serpent's second greatest lie. If he can't turn a single woman into accepting a Jezebel spirit, he'll try night and day to get her to accept the lie THAT THERE COULD BE SOMETHING BETTER, FOR A SINGLE WOMAN, THAN SITTING AT THE FEET OF JESUS AND LISTENING TO HIM.

Now, I believe it is just a little different for a married woman, and also a married woman with children. The Word says they shall be "saved" (literal Greek, "to save, preserve safe, restore to health) thru childbearing, I Tim. 2:15. If a godly woman is married with no children (yet), she should find her greatest joy in walking alongside her husband as a helpmate to whatever God is leading him to do. This is also true when a godly woman has a husband and children--first serve him, as Sarah did, then serve the children, THEN SIT AT THE FEET OF JESUS. I believe this brings into harmony all of what the Spirit said thru Jesus to women, thru Paul to women, and thru Peter to women.

However, the Sarah-Martha gets believing the lie that looking busy for Christ is the same as being at His feet. The enemy says, "You need to appear important in people's eyes, so get busy with work and home life." The enemy will even agree to let them be with husband/Christ second, as long as he can get them busy with non-eternal things first! The end result of this mix-up is depression in the godly woman--if I have seen it once, I have seen it hundreds of times in all the facets of "ministry".

This is what Sarah-Martha fell captive to, and the Lord Jesus gently brought correction to this lie she had been under. Not only did he bring it verbally here in this passage, Luke 10:41-42, but He actually brought it in an even more powerful way when we turn over to John 11:17-32.

The Luke 10 event had already transpired by the time this dead-raising event happened. Jesus had come in the Father's perfect timing to Bethany to raise Lazarus from the dead. Sarah-Martha went out to greet him, but Sarah-Mary waited at home. After a short encounter with Sarah-Martha, Christ let Sarah-Martha go and tell Sarah-Mary that He wants her, Greek literally says Christ was calling (phon-e-ow) for Mary. . .

Wooooooow. How much did Jesus desire Mary, for the gentle, and submissive way she would sit at His feet to acquire revelation? Sooooo much, he LET Martha leave to go and get her to come to him. God never forgets acts of passion. . . .

Sarah-Mary won the heart of the Lord over by the way she would just sit and receive from him!

Oh let this revelation go deep into the soul of every woman (and man!) who is longing for intimacy and revelation from the Lord! Does it really matter how long you have to sit at the feet of Jesus to get revelation? Is there anytime too long if it means that He will call for YOU when it is time to show His glory (vs. 40)?!?!

Father, break us all till we can sit quietly at your feet until we receive hell-shakin', chain-breakin' revelation!!

CHAPTER III

The truth/Truth revolution for godly women

I firmly see and believe the Lord is calling again for the return of godly women (and men!) to the truth standard of His Word. He has revealed to me, that the fact that there is now a woman in this country that desires to be the commander-in-chief of one of the greater armies ever, means that deception is lurking thru the media, and around every corner to bring the "church" down.

According to the Word of God, the godly women/wives of the true church must hold fast to the truth of who God created them to be, and not who the Jezebel spirit is trying to make them be. His truths will bring His holy revolution.

First, godly men and women must see God's two teaching destinies--Sarah and Jezebel--as His Word/warning to every generation, especially this one. God only needs to say something once, and we should forever engrave it on our hearts. Jesus Christ was angered by the fact that the Thyatiran church had tolerated this Jezebel spirit in their midst, Rev. 2:20-24. He also made clear that He was going to severely punish the women/woman responsible for bringing this deception. This is not a future event! It is spoken of by Christ in the present tense. And if we want to wisp this rebuke into the future for some "church", then if there is never a "church" called the "church in Thyatira" then this will never apply to anyone! Because it was only technically written to an angel, sent only to the "church in Thyatira"--let's not let the enemy put up this deception! This also means that all the other six letters would also ONLY have for their listeners, the people by the name of the "church in Philadelphia", etc., and nothing then applies to believers today. That's deception. The Lord Jesus Christ's life-giving rebukes should be sought out by all and, if anything, over-applied, not explained away!

I urge all, study out what this spirit of Jezebel means and reject it's every advance.

Second, we must recognize just HOW beautiful this gentle and quiet spirit is in the sight of God in His godly women. He has rewarded it (with Sarah); He is rewarding it with many godly wives reporting on how the promise of I Peter 3:1,2 (winning their husbands over to some truth of the Word just by their behavior), came true in their marriage and revolutionized it; and He certainly will reward these godly women both now, (and in Heaven, Hebr. 11:6) for their faith--believing God that He will bring the life-changing results if they will simply embrace the truth of I Peter 3:1-6.

Third, God has promised that He will pour out His Spirit on both His sons and daughters. He loves to pour out His Spirit on His daughters, (Acts 2:17) but we MUST understand that their receiving the Spirit to prophesy must still be done "decently and in order" (I Cor. 14:40) with the rest of what His Word teaches:

The Word says that godly women are not "to teach or to have authority over a man." (I Tim. 2:11,12). This, again, is what Jezebel sought to do.

The Word says that they are to learn in quietness and full submission (vs. 11), and yet, when the Spirit is poured upon them, they can and SHALL prophesy. But, in their prophesying or praying, to keep in step with His truth, they shall make it known that they are "covered" both by their long hair and their husband (if unmarried, a godly male shepherd), Read I Cor. 11:6-10, with Eph. 5:24.

The Word says godly women are to teach! But not over men, as we have seen in I. Tim. 2:11,12. But when the Spirit is poured out, they are to "train the younger women to love their husbands and children, to be self-controlled and pure, to be busy at home, to be kind, and to be subject to their husbands, SO THAT NO ONE WILL MALIGN THE WORD OF GOD." (Titus 2:4,5). Oh how beautiful their teaching is when it is teaching what God says to teach! Oh how beautiful their praying and prophesying is when they have a covering and it leads to revelation that sets other women and children free!

GOD WANTS TO POUR OUT HIS SPIRIT, BUT HE ALSO WANTS ORDER!
HE WANTS TO USE GODLY WOMEN IN THE SAME WAY HE USED SARAH TO BRING BLESSING INTO THEIR FAMILY AND LIFE; IN THE SAME WAY HE USED
'SARAH-MARY' TO PREPARE THE WAY FOR THE DEAD TO BE RAISED; IN THE SAME WAY HE USED MARY MAGDALENE AFTER THE DEMONS WERE CAST OUT OF HER; THE SAME WAY HE USED THE SAMARITAN WOMAN AT THE WELL TO WIN A WHOLE TOWN TO JESUS,
AFTER JESUS TAUGHT HER THAT HE WANTED MEN AND WOMEN WHO WORSHIPED HIM IN SPIRIT AND TRUTH!!!*

God forbid that we should limit what He wants to do with godly women (or men!), but God also forbid that we should say that women are to be leading His church when the Word clearly teaches otherwise.

Clearly, when Jesus unleashed the truth in John 4:23,24, exactly who the Father was seeking, ALL HEAVEN AND EARTH SHOULD HAVE STOPPED TO FIND OUT EXACTLY WHAT THE FATHER WOULD BE SEEKING!!!

The Lord spoke it to me this way after I read this one time, "John, it's good when men set there heart to seek me, but it gets better when I start seeking them." Yes, Lord, yes, my heart responded!!

The Father is always going to seek those who will worship (at the feet of Jesus, as Sarah-Mary modeled her adoration) Him, in Spirit (moved by the Spirit as David and Mariam were) and in truth/Truth, making sure our obedience and praise are done orderly as the great Apostle Paul was moved to write. HE ADORES THE WORSHIPERS WHO BRING BOTH!!!

"Father, may we all, and especially your godly women, not ever neglect to be found as those who are worshipping you in both Spirit and Truth, both now and forever. We desperately need you to give us more hunger and humility that we might be perfectly pleasing in your sight!"
